the legality of the Board's meeting twice a month.

Commissioner Comstock, in consequence of Justice Cullen's refusal Saturday to permit him to file new bonds, will, upon advice of counsel, ask the Town Supervisor for such permission.

In the event of such an attempt the case will be taken into the courts. Weeks, Smith and the other members of the Board will not recognize Comstock as Commissioner, but proceed to call a meeting this week and finish their business.

ATTACKED A BIG POLICEMAN.

Two Young Men Got Their Heads Bruised and Were Arrested.

Justice Goetting, in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day held two men calling themselves Chauncey Higgins and John Foley for examination on a charge of fighting. The prisoners are well-dressed young men, and it is are well-dressed young men, and it is said that their names are fictitious. Policeman Fanning of the Vernon avenue station, was standing at the corner of Park avenue and Walworth street yesterday afternoon, when three young men came along and commenced to chaff him on his great height. Fan-ning suggested that they move along, but instead of doing so the trio at-tacked him.

There were twenty-four horses in the stable at the time, among them two of Mr. Ebling's valuable troiters. None of the animals were hurt. Hostler Fritz Schmidt, who was standing within ten feet of where the mass of iron landed, was slightly cut by flying splinters.

A piece of iron weighing fifty pounds went through the side of John Deltsch's house, 785 Easle avenue, thirty feet from the scene of the explosion, and landed in a room where Deltsch's brother, Charles, was asleep. The missile demolished a bureau in the room before falling to the floor. John Deltsch, who is foreman of Engline Company 41, ran out and sent in an ambulance call, Another piece of iron, weighing forty pounds, struck the front of the house and knocked the plastering off the parlor wall.

A big piece of the boller, weighing about 100 pounds, knocked the chimney off the house of Emil Goth, who lives next door, at 785. The boller door landed in the yard of Mrs. Louisa Hoffman's house, 308 St. Ann's avenue, 600 feet away.

He at once sent in a fire alarm from the corner of St. Ann's avenue and One Hundred and Fifty-sixth street.

DEAD IN A HALLWAY.

Supposed Brooklyn Excursionist Found in a Yonkers Building.

YONKERS, May 21.-Early this morning the janitor of the Hawthorne Hall Building, at Main and Depot streets, opposite the Hudson River Railroad station, found the body of a well-dressed young man lying on the hall floor at the head of the stairs. The man had been dead for some hours.

The matter was reported to the police, and Capt. Mangin began an investiga-tion. He ordered the body to be removed to the undertaking establishment moved to the undertaking establishment of James Veitch.

The young man was apparently about twenty-one years old. Capt. Mangin thinks that the man died from alcoholism. Coroner Miles will perform an autopay and hold an inquest to-night.

Last night the deceased, in company with two other men and a woman, came over to this city from a pienic grove on the Palisades, on the Jersey Shore. They had been on an excursion from New York.

The deceased and his companions were seen by John Handron and a friend, who were standing in front of the hall. The man, who is now dead, was very drunk and was supported by his companions. He tere himself away from them and ran upstairs into the hall. His friends went on. They cannot be found.

The man is supposed to live in Brooklyn, but there was nothing on his person to disclose his identity.

When the explosion occurred the men were just about to start work for the day. Engineer Crowly, in fact, had his hand on the valve ready to turn the steam into the pipes which fed the drills when the crash came.

Driller Cannon was near-by, but both he and Crowley were picked up forty feet away from the place where the boiler stood.

There was a gang of twelve men altogether engaged in making the excavation, which is to be the site of Hrewer William Ebling's new $30,000 house just back of the brewery. The twelve men were thrown down by the concussion. All the windows in the vicinity were broken.

Those who were on the spot and escaped injury, say that the upper half of the boiler went up fully 200 feet. In its descent, it crashed through the roof of the brewery stable, 300 feet away, making a hole 16 feet in diameter through the roof and the two floors under it, landing on the groundfloor in the aisle between the stalls in the stable.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 21.—Claude Sanders, a boy, has been arrested for shooting Wille Taylor. Both were dime novel readers.

"I am Deadwood Dick, the avenger?" exclaimed Sanders, pointing a pistol as Taylor.

"Well, what if you are?" replied the latter. "I am Buffalo Bill, and I ain't afraid of you. Blaze away!"

Sanders did blaze away, and the bullet entered Taylor's brain just above the eye. His death is merely a question of hours.

a Knife Wound. Although the police seem to incline to the theory that the man whose body taken from the water at the foot of East Grand street last night, with stone tied around his neck, committed stone tied around his neck, committed suicide, the horribly battered appearance of the man's face seems rather to point to murder. This is the more probabl. as there is a wound in the left wrist which appears to have been made by a knife-thrust. The stone weighed about twelve pounds.

The body had been lying in the water for probably a month.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 21.—The coke strikers made an effort to rally to-day in splte of the rain and storm, but it was a miserable failure, and they now seem to have given up the fight. The bad weather was a factor in bringing the contest to such a sudden end. All the plants are running with increased forces to-day. Col. Hudson, of the Governor's staff, says the situation would not justify the calling out of the troops. M'LACHAN HELD FOR TRIAL. Charged with Assaulting a Policeman on a Street Car. J., May $1 .- Two chooners, one a three-master, the other with two masts, were sighted this morn-There is a terrible sea on, and both vessels are so far out that assistance from life-saving crews is impossible. The heavy gale and high tide did not do much damage in this vicinity aside from washing away portions of bulk-heads and throwing sand up on the lawns in front of Summer cottages. Last night the electric lights were put out by the storm. This damage is being repaired to-day. The body of the man who was washed ashore yesterday at Highland Beach has not been identified. The features are so badly decomposed as to be unrecognizable. The man wore the garb of a sailor and is believed to be one of the seamen who were drowned in one of the recent shipwrecks on the Jersey coast. There is a terrible sea on, and both
